Pretty Dance Complimenting Miss Dorothy Townsend.

The Walton home on Kirkland street presented a charmingly festive appearance Thursday evening, with its profuse decorations of holly and poinsettias. Mrs. W. A. Walton was entertaining at a dance in honor of Miss Dorothy Townsend, who is home from Ashley Hall in Charleston to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Townsend, at Orange Mills. This was one of the most delightful social events of the holiday season.

Mrs. Walton and the honoree, with Miss Virginia Jordan, who is making her home with Mrs. Walton, and Miss Winifred Strong, who is home from the Woman's College at Tallahassee to spend the holidays, received the guests. Mrs. Walton was handsome in black lace over satin, while Miss Townsend wore a dainty and girlish dancing frock of rose-colored chiffon. This was worn with silver slippers and hair bandeau, and was most becoming to the wearer's brunette beauty. Miss Winifred Strong was prettily gowned in a fetching frock of chiffon, while Miss Jordan wore soft and becoming yellow crepe.

A four-piece orchestra furnished delightful music, and the programs were small white affairs with a holiday touch introduced in the red penicils. The lower floor of this charming colonial home was thrown open to the dancers and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. At 11 o'clock a buffet supper was served, consisting of chicken salad, hot rolls, pickles and coffee. Punch was enjoyed throughout the evening.

Mrs. Walton was assisted in looking after the pleasure of her guests by Mrs. J. V. Walton, Miss Susie Walton, Mrs. Mary L. Strong, Miss Nora Sharp and Mrs. Florine Evans, her other guests being Misses Fanny Points, Annabel Converse, Kathleen Leeks, Virginia Hudgins, Fanny Hudgins, Katherine Johnson, Louise Johnson, Edith Veltvort, Mildred Williams, Ella Woodruff, Selma Miller of Elkton, Ruth Browning, Maude Hudgins, Mildred Pearce, Jacquelin Pursley, Essie Woodruff, Mary Ruth Woodruff, Katherine Ray, Gertrude Conaster of South Pittsburg, Tenn.; Clarice Newton, Lula Cooksey, Florence McRae, Hazel Gardner of Jacksonville, Doris Hillyer of Jacksonville, Birdie Reed, Winifred Strong, Virginia Jordan, Dorothy Townsend, and Messrs. Miss Bertha Seligman, of Quincy, who is visiting in Palatka, and who will be one of Miss Kanner's attendants in the Becker-Kanner wedding, New Year's eve, entertained informally last evening in honor of the bride-to-be, Miss Lily Kanner. Miss Seligman entertained her guests at the Kanner home on South Fourth street, which was prettily decorated for the occasion with Christmas greenery, holly, mistletoe and ferns.

During the evening Miss Bertha Foster of Savannah, who is here to attend the wedding, gave a delightful program of music. An "apron show" was featured at the party. A variety and charming number of aprons, the gifts of those present, were hung on a miniature "clothes line," and Miss Kanner was directed to "take in the clothes."

Dainty refreshments consisting of fruit salad, sandwiches, hot chocolate and candy were served.

Those enjoying this affair last evening with the hostess and honoree were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jacobson, Mrs. H. L. Joseph, Mrs. Charles Bauman, Mrs. I. Fiegenbaum, Mrs. J. Wexler, Mrs. J. Mrs. Mattox Hostess to Club.

One of the enjoyable gatherings of Christmas week was the meeting of the Weekly Auction club, which took place Thursday afternoon at the apartment of Mrs. Goss Mattox. Mrs. Mattox entertained her guests in the living room, where two tables were made up for pivot auction. Vases of lovely roses placed about the room added to the pleasure of those present, and at the conclusion of the play Mrs. Mattox presented bouquets of exquisite roses as prizes to the makers of top scores at each table. Winning these trophies were Mrs. Ridley Wilkinson and Mrs. Goode M. Guerry.

After the game Mrs. Mattox served the card players and a few other guests who came in for tea, with a delicious salad course followed by an ice course.

Queer Feelings

"Some time ago, I was very irregular," writes Mrs. Cora Robie, of Pikeville, Ky. "I suffered a great deal, and knew I must do something for this condition. I suffered mostly with my back and a weakness in my limbs. I would have dreadful headaches. I had hot flashes and very queer feelings, and oh, how my head hurt! I read of and of others, who seemed to have the same troubles I had, being benefited, so I began to use it. I found it most beneficial. I took several bottles . . . and was made so much better I didn't have any more trouble of this kind. It regulated me."

CARDUI

Cardui has been found very helpful in the correction of many cases of painful female disorders, such as Mrs. Robie mentions above. If you suffer as she did, take Cardui—a purely vegetable, medicinal tonic, in use for more than 40 years. It should help you. Sold Everywhere.
